DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-21, drawn to a composition, classified in class 524, subclass 371+.
  - II. Claims 22-30, drawn to an article, classified in class 428, subclass 1+.
  - III. Claims , drawn to a method of marking a tubular article, classified in class 522, subclass 1+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product, and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.05(j)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a composition for a medical syringe and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct because there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants.
3. Inventions I and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as by etching or painting.

Art Unit: 1714

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

A composition comprising various combinations of :

1. 30.0% to about 80.0% by weight of the composition of
A terpolymer of an ethylene-propylene-diene monomer
2. About 10.0% to about 30.0% by weight of the composition of a flame retardant;
1,2 bis(tetrabromophthalimide) ethane
3. 0.1% to about 0.4%,/0 by weight of the composition of an antimicrobial agent.
salt complex of pyrithione
4. A flame retardant synergist
5. filler material selected from
  - a. silica
  - b. clay
  - c. and combinations thereof
6. silane coupling agent
7. A peroxide
8. zinc oxide
9. Antioxidant
10. An acrylic co-agent

Art Unit: 1714

11. filler material
    - silica
    - clay
    - combinations thereof
  12. silane coupling agent
  13. A peroxide
  14. zinc oxide
  15. Absorber
  16. A pigment
  17. An energy beam absorber
    - a. laser beam absorber
5. The species are independent or distinct because the individual components are patentably distinct are each capable of supporting patents and require divergent searches.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Applicant should indicate which if any of the components 1-17 above are included in the composition, article or method elected for examination. Currently, claims 1, 22 and 31 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

6. A telephone call was not made to applicant's representative to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, due to the complexity of the art involved.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
